MILWAUKEE POLICE INVESTIGATE TRIPLE HOMICIDE

Officers, Detectives canvass neighborhood for information

Milwaukee Police tonight are interviewing relatives and neighbors of three people found dead in a home in the 2500 block of N. 28th Street Tuesday afternoon.

A relative went to the house to check on the residents about 1:42 p.m. Tuesday. When the relative entered, she told police she discovered the three deceased people inside. The deceased are a 51-year-old woman and two men, ages 33 and 35. The deaths are being investigated as a homicide. No suspects were in custody as of 5 p.m. Tuesday.

When police arrived on the scene, they entered Clarke Street School, which is directly across the street from the homicide scene. The school doors are locked as a daily routine, and it was not believed that the children or school personnel inside were in any immediate danger. Police Officers walked children home that lived within the area surrounded by crime scene tape.

The next new information available to the media on this case will be given at the daily police media briefing at 9:30 a.m. on Wednesday.
